Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claims 67- 84 remain pending.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

The Applicants arguments filed on March 14, 2005 have been fully considered. Upon further consideration Claim 68 remains rejected under Stefik. See following rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 68 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Stefik (US Patent No 5,715,403).

As per claim 68,

Stefik ('403) discloses an information providing apparatus for a system that also includes an information processing apparatus and another information providing apparatus comprising: transmission control means for controlling a transmission of a content to the another information providing apparatus in response to a request for purchasing content from an information processing apparatus ;(Figure 19[elements 1906- sending data and 1909 the client receiving data in particular]) reception control means for controlling, when said content has previously been transmitted to the information providing apparatus, the reception, sent from said second information processing apparatus, of information for identifying a transmission destination of said content said first information processing apparatus;(Figure 18 [elements 1807and 1813 determine if the digital work is usable i.e. reception control]) storage control means for controlling the storing of said information of said first information processing apparatus for identifying said transmission destination of said content in correspondence with data for identifying said content. (Figure 1 [stores in a repository]) transmission control means also for transmitting said information for identifying the transmission destination and usage condition to said information processing apparatus.(Figure 19[elements 1906- sending data and 1909 the client receiving data in particular]) reception control means for receiving from said information processing apparatus user identification data for identifying a user of said information processing apparatus.(Figure 16 [elements 1614 checks registration ID])

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 67, 69-84 are allowable over the prior art record.

Conclusion

Examiners note: Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers in the references as applied to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings of the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant in preparing responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.
